

CCL Licence

Why your church needs a CCL Licence:

If your church reproduces song material (by means of photocopy, print, handwriting, electronic storage) that is protected by copyright you will need either a licence or direct permission from the copyright owner or administrator. Now there is an easy and affordable solution for churches which reproduce songs.....or would like to.

The CCL Licence covers you for:

- Printing songs on overhead acetates
- Printing songs on service sheets, bulletins etc.
- Creating your own song books/song collections
- Storing songs on your computer for displaying via a projector

The licence covers you not only for your church services, but also for any other activities like home groups, Sunday schools, seminars, retreats, youth meetings etc.
